

Dear Fabergé Enthusiasts:

Below (and see attachments) are the final details for the Friday-Saturday, July 27-28, 2018, Fabergé Enthusiasts Gathering in Richmond (VA) with an add-on trip to Hillwood Museum, Estate & Gardens in Washington (DC). Both locations are offering special venues and bonuses for our group.

Pratt Fabergé Eggs
(Courtesy Virginia Museum of Art)

New Egg Installation, Hillwood
Museum
(Snapshot by George W. Terrell, Jr.)

Richmond on Friday, July 27, 2018: Virginia Museum of Fine Arts (VMFA) with a large Fabergé collection and many additional amazing collections is our location for the Fabergé Research Day.

- Program for the event (Attachment #1)
- Cost $50, limited to 50 participants. VMFA REGISTRATION FORM MUST BE RETURNED BY MAY 1, 2018 (Attachment #2). Proceeds from the Fabergé gathering will benefit the VMFA Library.
- Bonus - Free tickets on the day of your arrival until 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 26, 2018, to the Napoleon: Power and Splendor exhibition currently on view at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts.
- Hotels for Richmond – (Attachment #3)

Washington (DC) on Saturday, July 28, 2018:

- Hillwood Museum is extending a discounted rate of $40 to members of our group payable upon arrival at the museum. This includes a tour of the brand-new Fabergé exhibition Fabergé Rediscovered with Wilfred Zeisler. At your leisure you may also tour the museum and gardens.
- If you are interested in going to Hillwood, please advise Christel McCanless by May 1 at christel@fabergeresearch.com. Based on the number of “yes” answers, transportation details will follow early in the summer. More information including transportation to Hillwood, the visit and guided tour, hotel suggestions, and airport information for Washington airports are in Attachment #4.

Please Note: Attendees who participate in both events will need to fly into Richmond (VA) and depart from Washington (DC).

Our thanks to the museum hosts in Richmond and Washington, and to our wonderful speakers.

See you soon!